

I am an XM Radio user and look forward to receiving XM weather and traffic content. Please don't let local radio and TV stop XM Radio's broadcast of that content. As a consumer that you represent, please don't stop progress and the benefit the new XM content will yield. I believe setting technical limits on technology is crippling to our country and should not be done.